

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praise and gratitude I offer to the Almighty God for His blessings, grace, and favour bestowed upon me, enabling me to compile and complete this thesis entitled " The Impact of Attitude, Subjective Norm, Perceived Behavioural Control, and Governmental Incentives Towards the Purchase Intention of Green Residential Building Among the Millennials in Indonesia." The purpose of writing this thesis is to fulfil one of the graduation requirements to obtain a Bachelor of Business Degree from Agung Podomoro University.

The author acknowledges that in the writing and completion of this thesis, the author received assistance from various parties. Therefore, the author would like to express gratitude to all parties who have helped and provided direction, support, guidance, and encouragement to the author during the preparation of this thesis, namely to:

- 1) Ms. Maria Dini Prathivi, as the supervising lecturer and also to all teaching staff in the Entrepreneurship Study Program at Agung Podomoro University who have dedicated their time, energy, and thoughts to guide me in the preparation of this thesis.
- 2) To my family and my friends who have supported me in the making of this thesis: Hubert, Daud, Vincent, Andreano, and Gilberto.

In conclusion, may the Almighty God repay all the kindness of those who have assisted. I hope this thesis will be beneficial for the development of further scientific knowledge.
