Title :EMPLOYMENT LAW PROTECTION OF CHILDREN'S ECONOMIC EXPLOITATION AS AN ARTIST IN LEGAL PRIVATE VOCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Abstract

Issues regarding the involvement of children in the world of employment are not a new things that need to be overly worried about. Because in the fact, the legislations allow children to work during the work provided is light work and to develop the interest and the talents. However, over the times, the growth of the environment and the type of work children often develop rapidly. Not only as factory workers, at present there are more and more children working in the art industry. As a result of the legal vacuum regarding the special protection and supervision of children in the art industry, these children are often victims of economic exploitation, both parents and entrepreneurs. The luxurious life that always follows this Child causes the government and the public to be increasingly ignorant of the practice of economic exploitation that occurs, so that the practice of economic exploitation of the Child continues to occur because there are no regulations that specifically protect the life of art labour industry. The method used in this study is a descriptive method based on applicable laws and regulations.
