

PREFACE

For all of our works are given by God, done by His graces and blessings, we praise Him for the capability of completing this Final Project. This Capstone Project is a final requirement to obtain the degree of Sarjana Terapan Pariwisata (Bachelor of Applied Tourism) in Podomoro University. The authors are also wellaware that many parties have given a lot of their time and assistance to complete the Final Project. Thus, the authors would like to thank:

1. Mr. Budi Riyanto as the Head of Hotel Business Program,
2. Mr. Stefanus Angga as the supervising lecturer who has provided his guidance in time, energy, and ideas that has become one of the main successes of project completeness,
3. All lecturers of Hotel Business Program,
4. Village governance of Pahawang Island and Andreas Resort who have given more than enough information for the research,
5. Parents and families who have contributed in material and moral support in all forms,
6. Comrades and friends who handed a lot of their help in this final project.

Finally, may all of their merits be repaid by God Almighty. The authors hope that the project could be an inspiration and helps for our generation. Furthermore, the authors are hoping there will be more of the research done by students or related parties.
